COMPETE FOR EXCELLENT QUALITY OUTPUT -- Bakinskiy Rabochiy, 4 Aug 50

More than 2,800 brigades from plants of the Ministry of Machine and Instrument Building competed for pre-eminence for the second quarter 1950. During the competition, output was greatly increased, and its quality improved. Much metal and other materials were saved. Already 84 brigades have received the title of "excellent quality" brigade. Half of them are from Moscow enterprises.

To improve quality of production still further, the ministry and the central committee of the trade union have acknowledged the necessity of developing competition for excellent quality among technical control workers of the enterprises, as well as among shops and plants. Thus, the titles "excellent quality shop" and "excellent quality plant" will be awarded.
